U S SANITARY COMMISSION }
New York, Feb 3d, 1863 }

HON. AMORY HOLBROOK,
Portland, Oregon

My Dear Sir—I believe our Treasurer has in every case promptly acknowledged the successive, astonishing contributions which Oregon and Washington Territory have sent through you to our Commission, and through us to the soldiers I am, however always solicitous lest our generous donors may not fully understand how profoundly we appreciate their goodness, sympathy and beneficence, and I would especially have you apprised how highly we rate your disinterested and devoted and successful services in our cause! I hope one day to visit Oregon, and thank her people for their fidelity and confidence, and take you by the hand in your beautiful valley May God send us swiftly the peace which will render such journeys possible to those who are engaged in the service of our fighting and suffering soldiers

I beg you not to think because you hear of divisions and strifes among our people that their patriotism is dead or chilled I am persuaded that the unbroken integrity of our soil will be maintained, that foreign intervention is a bugbear, that the coming Spring will see the Southern Rebellion cooped up in the interior and slowly dying in its cage

We want unconditional loyalty among our own people and confidence in the Government, which owes its indecision very much more to outside fluctuations and opposition than to internal dissensions or want of energy and patriotism Say this everywhere, on the authority of one who is not a politician, nor a partisan; who has no ax to grind, and who really wishes only to tell the truth

Cordially and gratefully yours,
HENRY W BELLOWS

APPEAL OF AN ARMY OFFICER TO THE COUNTRY—In the eastern papers we find the following admiral letter from Major General Howard, of the regular army, which ought to be read and pondered by every men who loves his country We commend it to our readers, as a complete answer to the snarling "peace" nonsense, of which we hear so much

HEADQUARTERS, SECOND DIVISION, SECOND CORPS }

The critical state of our government just at this juncture, has induced me to risk being misinterpreted, and set before you some of the feelings and thoughts of an officer in the field, who yearns for the welfare of his country—Sometimes I hear, "there is apathy at home among a large class," then, "that the disloyal are gaining over to themselves this apathetic class," that "very many even rejoice at our failures," that "thousands are crying for 'peace,' 'peace,' at all events" What does all this mean? What does it portend? I have left my precious family and offered my self to my country, gone to the threatened points, breasted the storm, and thrown every obstruction I could in the way of the enemy, and am still facing him, but what boots it if there is no support from home, if there is nothing but indifference or open opposition there? Why struggle on and wet this soil with our blood if there is no love of country among our people? Let the enemy come in like a whirlwind Let the cities of Philadelphia and New York be turned over to pillage. Let all the horrors of a desolating war sweep over the thickly populated districts of the Western and Middle States, then perhaps, by and-by, our good people will wake up to a sense of their sinful selfishness and folly—Peace! There is no peace. God will not give us peace till we conquer it We may change the theatre of the war, but we can have no peace, short of the destruction of our country From infancy I have been taught to love my country and to love freedom At times I have been able to apologize for slavery, but have always felt that it was a blot upon us Now must I sacrifice my country to save slavery? The rebels might have enjoyed their darling institution awhile longer but they would not have it so, they might still, perhaps preserve a transitory remnant by promptly yielding to law and returning to allegiance, but this they will not do Let us out with it, we have no alternative we must destroy slavery root and branch we must do it in order to "subjugate" the persistent enemy of republican government God grant us the strength and stamina to meet the issue boldly If we do not he will bring us to it by chastening and scourging This is a hard duty—a terrible, a solemn duty, but it is a duty I am not prepared to see this government destroyed not willing to give my children anarchy and shame for an inheritance, not ready for a patched up peace that will cause the land to be again drenched in blood in a few short years Neither am I satisfied at the prospect of a border that five hundred thousand troops could not more than half man—No, we will bear our own burdens and not bequeath them to our children. While I have a corporal's guard to lead I will lead them against the enemy of my country

Mr Editor, you are a writer This is your business Work work—destroy this fatal apathy—convince the faint hearted of their hopeless folly and root out the insidious, poisonous plants of disloyalty that are growing up in the shape of partisan opposition to the government

Yours truly
O O HOWARD Brig Gen Vols

(SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN)

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to March 10th.

NEW YORK, March 8th—A rebel mail containing $12,000 in rebel bonds, some gold and treasury notes was captured on the Potomac on Friday, March 6th

The Herald's Port Royal correspondent states that the Montauk when returning from destroying the Nashville run over a torpedo which exploded, lifting the vessel two feet but not injuring her except by a slight disarrangement of her machinery

NEW YORK, March 9th—Sterling exchange quiet at 172½@173½ gold firmer, but still unsettled opening at 55½ and closing at 58

WASHINGTON, March 9th—Information has been received from Hilton Head correspondence, dated March 1st stating that the pirate Nashville endeavored during a fog to run past the blockaders but got aground Commander Worden discovering her ran up within 1200 yards with the Montauk Fort McAllister opened a fire at his fire but Worden took no notice, leaving the wooden gunboats to reply to that Four shells bursted in the Nashville setting her on fire and one went through her side into the powder magazine which blew her up with a great explosion—None of our vessels were harmed The Montauk and Patapsco iron clads have been sent on an expedition to test their fighting qualities, in Ossabaw Sound, together with the Ericsson with mortar boats in tow An attempt will be made to finish the rebel ram Fingal It is not thought that Fort McAllister will make much resistance.

A refugee from Richmond says that several thousand troops have been sent to reinforce Price on the Blackwater and also that twenty five thousand troops from the Southwest passed through Richmond within a few weeks

FORTRESS MONROE, March 8th—Richmond dispatches of the 6th says the gunboat Indianola captured from the yankees, was blown up last Tuesday, 30th, by the rebels her guns fell into the hands of the federals The Queen of the West left in such a hurry that she left a part of her crew on shore. Later dispatches state that the Indianola was not destroyed, and they are endeavoring to raise her.

The federal gunboats are making great destruction on Lake Providence An attack was daily expected on Fort Hudson, by Bank's forces

WASHINGTON, March 9th—The Richmond Enquirer of the 6th, has been received at the headquarters of the army It contains the following

MOBILE, March 5th—The Jackson Mississippian says the destruction of the Indianola was a most unnecessary affair A turreted monster which recently passed the batteries at Vicksburg proved to be a flat boat, with sundry fixtures, to create a deception She passed Vicksburg on Tuesday night March 3d, and the officers of the Indianola believing her to be a turreted gunboat blew her up the guns falling into the hands of the federals

PHILADELPHIA, March 9th—The following is from the Richmond papers of the 7th—

Fort Hudson, via Nashville, March 6th—Intelligence of the greatest importance has been received from the front,—the preparations making by Banks' army point irresistably to quietly advance to northern points The sloop of war Mississippi and the gunboat Essex are now anchored at Baton Rouge—Banks' force is fully 90,000 strong. It is the opinion of military men that this point will be attacked in a few days.

CAIRO, March 8th—We have advices from the fleet before Vicksburg to Tuesday afternoon March 3d Everything was working well All the canals are now thought to be successful, dredging machines are working upon the canal opposite Vicksburg—soon the gunboats will be able to pass through with alacrity One gunboat from Yazoo pass had already reached Yazoo city There is no doubt of our ability to get forces into the rear of Vicksburg, and thus cut off the rebel communications with Jackson and Lake Providence The health of the troops was improving The canal was nearly ready for use As soon as the trees stumps and other obstructions are removed, the water will be let in

NEW YORK, March 9th—The steamer Columbus, from New Orleans, Feb 27th, via Havana, March 2d has arrived Three companies of the 42d Mass, the crew of the Harriet Lane, and two hundred and seventy of the 8th Regulars captured by the rebels, have been exchanged by the rebels and arrived at New Orleans also 20 prisoners taken from the Queen of the West Havana advices are unimportant

FRANKLIN, Tenn March 9th—A large force of infantry, artillery and cavalry moved this morning against the enemy's position at Spring Mill near Columbia with the intention of routing them Should they make a stand, there will probably be a heavy engagement

Second Dispatch.

CHICAGO, March 10—The New Orleans Era of Feb 25th, publishes the following "We learn on good authority that the establishment at Clinton, La, for the manufacture of arms, ammunition, &c was totally destroyed by fire two weeks since The loss to the rebels is particularly severe at this time as the troops in that section have been very scantily supplied their officers depending on the capacity of their works at Clinton to furnish them The difficulties alluded to by the Confederate Secretary of War have been greatly increased by this disaster It is reported that the Harriet Lane can never be of any use the rebels They have no machine shops in Texas at which she can be repaired Her post shaft was bent 6 inches out of line and 2 flanges of the port wheel were burst She was thus completely disabled by the last shell thrown from the Owasco"

ST LOUIS, March 10—The Camp Blunt Arkansas, correspondent of the Democrat of Feb 26 says "The Cherokee national Council has just adjourned This is the same Council that was coerced into passing an ordinance of secession by the rebel army Their first act was to repeal it unanimously they then passed an act depriving of office in the nation and disqualifying all who continued disloyal to the United States They also passed an act abolishing slavery"

WASHINGTON, March 10—Dispatches received to-day from Gen Milroy at Winchester Va stating that a strong force of Confederates were moving towards Winchester They were near Luray when the dispatch was written Some believe them to be the Hampton Legion—others thought they were Hill's troops Preparations had been made to give them a warm reception

MURFREESBORO, March 9—A report has just reached here that Van Dorn's forces had been defeated and the larger portion of them captured Rosecrans has ordered all whose natural supporters are in the rebel service and whose sympathies and convictions are such that they cannot justify an assurance that they will conduct themselves in a friendly manner shall be in readiness to go South of our lines within ten days A vast exodus from Murfreesboro will take place immediately

NEW YORK, March 10—A special dispatch to the Herald, from Salt Lake city of the 9th, says that a collision between the military and the citizens was imminent Gov Harding and Associates Waite and Drake are understood to have called on Col Connor to arrest Brigham Young and [illegible] Kimball and Welles The Judges of the District Court cannot serve any civil process as the citizens are in arms and determined to protect their leaders by military force Federal officers and Mormon citizens have telegraphed to Gen Wright to restrain Col Connor until an investigation can be had A Colonel who left that morning for Washington had been arrested by order of Col Connor and brought back It is presumed that his intentions were unfavorable to Connor's military interference

NEW YORK, March 10—A special Washington dispatch to the Tribune states that the spirits of the army are greatly better The health is excellent The [illegible] are rapidly improving Everything looks cheering General Order No 20 [illegible] to-day contains the names of 120 officers absent without leave who are ordered to report within 10 days or be dismissed from the service The Times Washington dispatch says that the Judges of the Supreme Court are unanimous in reference to all prize cases in cases argued upon before them and which are to be rendered to-morrow The cases that attract particular attention are prize cases and the new Almaden mines The decision which involves millions of dollars is in favor of the New Almaden Company and against the United States

An order transferring Gen Sumner to the command lately held by Gen Curtis will be issued to-morrow The command will embrace Arkansas Missouri New Mexico Nebraska and Colorado

The Surgeon General has directed that all sick and wounded soldiers who have been sick for three months and upwards and are in a fit state to bear transportation shall be immediately transferred to the general Hospital near their homes

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

Legal Tender Notes this Day—65 cents.

TRIAL TRIP.—Steam was got up on the E. D. Baker, belonging to the People's Line, last night about nine o'clock, for the purpose of making a trial trip to Vancouver. At time of going to press she had not started, hence we cannot say how she moved or what was the result.

PLEASURE EXCURSION.—The new steamer E. D. Baker will make a trial trip to-day, leaving her wharf at 1 o'clock, P. M. An invitation is extended to everybody to take a ride. See advertisement.

TO GARDENERS.—An excellent opportunity is offered by Mr. W. W. Chapman, for one or two enterprising gardeners to make a good thing in the way of raising vegetables, &c., close to market. Several acres of excellent land, for this purpose, can be rented from him upon very reasonable terms. See advertisement.

THANKS.—Mr. Charles Barrett, of the Great Book and Newspaper Emporium, Front Street, deserves our special thanks for an arm full of late eastern papers, periodicals and magazines. Customers can be supplied at Mr. Barrett's with anything extant, in the shape of reading matter.

THE TELEGRAPHIC DISPATCHES.—which we publish this morning, are of so great length, that we are compelled to abstain from comment. Our readers will discover the matters of special interest, and will be glad to hear that the piratical Nashville has ended her infamous career, and that the Army of the Potomac is entirely recovered from the confusion which existed after the repulse at Fredericksburg. The difficulties at Salt Lake, between the Church and the State, seem likely to lead to a collision. We hope the leaders on each side will be prudent and serene, but if Brigham is in the wrong, he deserves to be treated like any other traitor. The position of Federal officers among the Mormons has for many years been one of great perplexity, and the Saints have only tolerated them when they were obliged to do so; perhaps this is as good a time as any to settle the question, if an issue must be made between the General Government and this "wayward sister."

SOLD!—The Commercial of last night published a letter which it says was written by Mr. Justice Miller, of the U. S. Supreme Court. Perhaps it thought so, but if so it has been deceived. The letter was written by a very different Miller, whose "professional engagements" employ him at the Bar, and not on the Bench. Give us the signature to the letter and we will be satisfied.

The Eugene City Review has another editor, who proposes to help Mr. Noltner disseminate [illegible] sentiments. This gentleman, Mr. J. M. Thompson, occupies more than a column in defining his position, which might have been done more briefly by saying, "I sympathize with the rebels, and hope and work that the Government will be defeated." Is not that about what you mean, Mr. Thompson?

Parson Brownlow, in a letter from Nashville, says Tennessee is to all intents and purposes brought back into the Union.

Mrs. Sophia Stewart, the last of the ancient royal family of Scotland, has just died in her 91st year.

W[illegible]ette No. 1.—DRILL this evening at 7 o'clock.

See the Authority.—Those who distrust the [illegible] of popular medicines, and wish to find a Cure [illegible] in any of its stages, are invited to [illegible] the statements of unquestionable authority given in favor of DR. HALL'S BALSAM. They will satisfy the most incredulous.

The New Market on Front street, No. 2, Couch's Addition, is now opened by Messrs. Storage.—THE FIRE PROOF STONE WAREHOUSE, opposite Umatilla House, is the only building not made of wood, in the Dalles, where goods are taken on STORAGE. All other houses that take goods on storage are wooden buildings and in exposed parts of the town, liable to the risk of fire. The subscriber assures his patrons that he charges but $1.50 per ton per month storage, and although storage in wooden buildings is $1.00 per ton, yet the public cannot fail to perceive the advantages the subscriber possesses over other warehouses of this place.

Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to Brown's Bronchial Troches, or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See advertisement.

Spring Violets under the Snow

Nothing is lost that has beauty to save
Purity rises in flowers from the grave
And from the blossoms that fade on the tree
Falleth the seed of the blossoms to be
Life out of death is mirrored in growth
Something immortal is hid here in both
Surely as cometh the Winter I know
There are Spring violets under the snow

See the old man in his great easy chair
Furrowed his forehead and white is his hair
Yet as her gaze [illegible] his dame
Pointing her eyes to the [illegible] same
Makes them withdraw from the light of the fire
Boyhood light hearted [illegible] the aire
Surely as cometh life's Winter I know
There are Spring violets under the snow

See the old wife [illegible] kerchief and cap
Dropping her knitting, work in her lap
While with a laugh that [illegible] shakes,
And o'er her [illegible] her [illegible]
Years are full [illegible]
Yet she's a girl in it [illegible]
Surely as cometh life's Winter I know
There are Spring violets under the snow

See the old people with nods of delight
Stealing together away for the night
Ever too fond and too cunning [illegible]
Why they should leave the shy lovers alone
But their eyes twinkling are telling the truth—
Down in their hearts is an answering youth
Surely as cometh life's Winter I know
There are Spring violets under the snow

The Prospect —The Union has a letter from its Washington correspondent (Castine) dated February 4th, from which we make the following extract

But the prospect is not altogether without gleam of light I have referred to great preparations, and you may be certain that at this present time the War and Navy Departments are making preparations to risk all upon the campaign of the next three months Every nerve is being strained, every available source of power is called into exercise, and a concentration of the strength of this nation will make one last effort for a triumphant conclusion of the war before ninety days shall have gone. The struggle will be decisive, and if we fail again at Vicksburg, Richmond and Charleston, we fail for the last time It is easy to see now with all of the facts staring us in the face, it is unavoidable to comprehend the necessity as well as the magnitude of the struggle, and it is useless to conceal or slur over the real issue now impending A peace of some sort is nigh at hand we may as well prepare our minds for it and be prepared for the combat now so imminent, and pray that God may speed the right The signs of the times are hopeful Large reinforcements are being sent to the Federals at Vicksburg; and the downfall of that citadel of the Southwest will be the severing of the main channel between the two wings of the Confederacy Realizing the importance of the position, the rebels will make a desperate resistance; but our Government also realizes the importance of a victory to us, and is prepared to risk all for its capture Vicksburg must be ours Nearer home, the Army of the Potomac, with which the hopes and affections of our people have always so rested, was never in a better condition than it has grown into in a short week Hooker has shown himself to be the vigorous, thorough man his supporters claim him to be, and under his firm hand the army is assuming a shape and character to which it has long been a stranger — Thorough is the word, and Hooker goes to work with an energy which shocks into vivacity the demoralized ranks of the Army of the Potomac. He is to have supreme and absolute control of the army, and can command the relief or removal from command of every officer in the field, from the Division Generals down to the lowest non-commissioned subaltern. This he exacted of the President in advance, and it was granted him, and he has given his subordinates to understand that any interference in his plans, any criticism of his views, other than in the way of military counsel, will result in instant removal Everyone who knows "Joe" Hooker knows his self reliance and his bold energy, and will not take it as idle boast in him that he has said that he will have Richmond in sixty days, or secure a peace which he will not live to see — Charleston is a doomed city, and Mobile shall fall when the time comes for its overthrow — Burnside once more in command in North Carolina and Butler in the Department of the Mississippi, repeated and simultaneous blows North and South of Richmond and upon the fortifications at Vicksburg—all of these promise well, and, as has been iterated, will save or ruin us Let us hope for the best, and believe that our long hour of humiliation and defeat draws to a close

An Astonished "Aborigine"—A California correspondent, in speaking of the overland telegraph, relates the following

Talking about telegraph, the first message sent over the wires was a stunner, and came direct from his Satanic Majesty to an 'aborigine!' It appears that the workmen were engaged in "hauling taut" the wire preparatory to crossing a stream, the banks of which were high and abrupt, and among them at the extreme and nearest the banks, was a "gentleman savage," who had, contrary to Indian nature, concluded to work for a few days to get a dollar to expend for whisky and tobacco They were surging away on the wire, when a little streak of electricity came dashing along from a point a hundred miles away, where a thunder storm was raging, and quicker than any hot potato was ever dropped, was the metal from the hands of the "haulers" who understood it, all except Mr Indian, who was suddenly seen to execute a war dance, with his eyes rolling; but he couldn't let go in time, the shock itself, of which the slightest sensation had been a precursor, formed a "continuity" with the native, and suddenly a very flat pair of feet were seen pointing heavenward, and the Indian supposed to own them, going down in a crescent like curve, head first into the creek For a moment he disappeared, but immediately emerged, scrambled up the bank, took one wild look behind him and then ran as no Indian ran before, with every hair straight up like a porcupine's, so stiff you could have hung a pickaxe on it That Indian has never been seen in that vicinity since He must consider the telegraph a perfect stunner, a shocking affair

General Rosekrans on Copperheads — Gen Rosekrans is a Democrat In conversation which Mr Sessions of Columbus, Ohio, had with Gen Rosekrans at Murfreesboro, since the battle, that officer said

"We of the North did not fully understand the enemy we had to deal with they fight like demons, disregarding flags of truce and all laws of civilized warfare, forcing boys into their army, as the many wounded and dead boys showed Why he said Bragg sent in a flag of truce and his men captured fifty prisoners immediately behind it! and being remonstrated with justified himself after considering upon it five days His condemnation of the Peace Democrats was scathing — He says they will lick the boots of the Southern thieves and liars who will turn around and kick them they mean fight fight fight and we can never conquer except by fighting in earnest, expecting to lose many valuable men."

A clergyman being much pressed by a lady of his acquaintance to preach a sermon the Sunday after her marriage, complied and chose the following passage in the Psalms for his text 'And there shall be abundance of peace—while the moon endureth "

Only One Safe Policy — At such a time as this all talk of compromise, of overtures of mediation are mischievous. They withdraw men's minds from the only one duty — The whole strength and energy of this people must close around its lawful Government for its triumph. We must choose between disruption and Union. This whole Union men must cease talking of mediation. It only distracts and weakens. Leave that to the enemies! Our business is patriotic war. The Union is worth another Thirty Years War. Peace has no price large enough for disruption and separation. Instead of an end of contention, we shall only come to a beginning of it. We shall never be so able as now to forestall mischiefs and end them. We believe that the anomalous reaction in the North has spent its force. The good men who were unadvisedly carried along with it are beginning to see its tendency. The evil men are disclosing their secret wishes. A rebound will be had. We hope ere long to see again the rising of that tide of feeling which will bear up the Government from the shoals in which it is stuck, and carry it to victory and security —N Y Independent

They Say —Who are they? Who are the cowled Monks, the hooded Friars who glide with shrouded faces in the procession of life, muttering in an unknown tongue words of strange import? Who are they? The midnight assassins of reputation who lurk in the byways of society, with tongues sharpened by invention and envenomed by malice to draw the blood of innocence, and hyena like, to banquet on the dead? Who are they? They are a multitude no man can number—black, stolid familiar with the inquisition of slander searching for victims in every city town and village wherever humanity throbs or the ashes of mortality find rest Give me the bold brigand who thunders along the high ways with flashing weapons that cut the sun beams as well as the shades; Give me the pirate who unfurls the black flag, and shows the plank which your doomed feet must tread, but save me from the They sayers of society, whose knives are hidden in a velvet sheath, whose bridge of death is woven in flowers and who spread with invisible poison even the spotless whiteness of the winding sheet —Caroline Lee Hentz

"Arrah mo darlint" cried Jamie O'Falagen to his loquacious sweet heart who had given him no opportunity of even answering her remarks, during a two hours' ride behind his little bay nags in his oyster wagon—'are ye afther knowin' why yer cheeks are like my ponies there?"

Shure and its because they're red, is it?' quoth blushing Bridget

'Faith an' a better risen than that, ma vourneen. Because there is one ov thim each side of a wagin' (wag o' tongue)

An Irishman who was at the celebrated battle of Bull's Run, was somewhat startled when the head of his companion on the left was taken off by a cannon ball A few minutes after, however, a spent ball broke the finger of his comrade on the other side The latter threw down his gun and howled with pain, when the Irishman rushed upon him exclaiming, 'You ould woman, shut up wid yer cryin'! You are making more noise about it than the man who lost his head

'So you are going to teach school?' said a young lady to her maiden aunt 'Well, for my part, sooner than do that I would marry a widower with nine children' 'I would prefer that myself," was the quiet reply, 'but where is the widower?"
